Do You Know What They Are Saying

The New Light Weight, Moderate Priced, Quality Car

About the Essex?

The Essex speaks for itself. The praise you hear of its performance and fine quality, is that expressed by those who have ridden in it. We have made no claims that have not been multiplied by thousands of motorists.

A ride is all that is needed to win men to the Essex. Its lightness and performance are resistless. You do not need to be an expert to appreciate its economy in first cost and operation.

The Essex was not developed by assembling units such as are used in other cars. It is an original design conceived because of the need for a light weight car having equal performance, riding qualities and endurance to the high priced heavy cars.

It has the high priced car's richness in appointment. The seats are large and roomy. They are deep and comfortable. The backs are high and support the shoulders. The driver has ample room for full and comfortable action.

Details You See and Admire

But when you have ridden in the Essex you will be enthusiastic over its performance.

If you are a user of a small car, it will give you a new sensation of power and stability. If you are more familiar with large and costly cars you will be surprised at its steadiness and ease of riding.

The Essex is free from violent vibration at all speeds. It gets under way smoothly and quietly because it is powerful and flexible. It rides smoothly over rough pavements without weaying and creaking, because its frame is as rigid as a bridge girder.

Won't You Also Ride in the Essex?

Here we have told you more of the Essex than we, who are to sell it, knew until after we had ridden in it.

We knew of the coming of the Essex for more than two years. But we had no idea that it would be so beautiful and efficient. You will be just as enthusiastic as we were. We know you will, for a quarter of a million motorists just like yourself have already shown what they think of it. Come and ride in the Essex.

Talk About a Curious Letter!

Here is one that really makes sense, reads in an interesting way and yet it is entirely constructed of the titles of popular songs: date line, complimentary address, signature and all!

"My Hero" "Over There" "At Twilight" "When Shadows Fall," "I'm Just a Wearyin' for You" "To Tell Me the Old, Old Story" "I'm Afraid I'm Beginning to Love You" "Absence Makes the Heart Grow Fonder" "Can't You See I'm Lonely" "Honey Dear" "When I Think of You" "All Alone" "All I Can Do is Just Love You" "When First We Met" "Down by the Old Mill Stream" "In the Shadows" "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" "You were 'First and Only'; or 'Was it a Dream?'" "A Maiden's Dream" "In 'School Days' you were 'Just My Style' and 'Always' 'Just a Little Smile' made 'A Perfect Day,' but 'When We Two Parted' you were 'Waiting for a Certain Girl' ('I'm Smiling to Hide My Tears')." "Night and Day" during 'Winter' I called you 'My Sweetheart,' but 'I Never Knew' 'Of the Men' "If I But Knew" "The Man I Love" was 'Dreaming' 'For the Two of Us'! 'When You Feel a Little Longing in Your Heart' for 'The Little Grey Home in the West' 'For Two, then 'Blue Birds Bring Back My Happiness'."

"I Think You Absolutely Wonderful" and "I Hate to Lose You," and "If You Loved Anybody but Me" I'd think 'There's Nothing on the Level Any More,' and "Consequences" would be, I'd need 'Sympathy.' You haven't 'Forgotten' the 'Dreams of Long Ago' "Sweetheart Days"? In 'Every Little Movement' you were 'Teasing,' 'Love Me Just Because,' and 'All I Can Do is Just Love You' "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold." "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and "Smile, Smile, Smile." "There's a Long, Long Trail" to "The Road to Home, Sweet Home," but when you are "Homeward Bound" "I'll be Waiting" with "A Little Love, a Little Kiss" and "Sooner or Later," "Sometime," "Some Sunday Morning" "If Dreams Come True" "Don't Tell." "Please Keep Me Young in Your Heart." "You're the Ideal of My Dreams," and "I Want the Right to Love You." "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

A "Fond Farewell," "K-K-Ka-Katy."

BETHEL

Considerable rain fell here, Sunday. Colds are prevailing just at present. Lillie Baker from Mason was the guest of Ida M. Haselton, last week. Venie Brown from Bethel worked at Almon Tyler's the first of the week. Mrs. Augusta M. Pratt passed away at the C. M. G. Hospital after a long severe illness, Thursday at about 12 o'clock. Services were Sunday at 1 o'clock from the home of her son, Leslie A. Pratt, in Auburn.

W. H. Hutchinson and son Erwin are cutting wood this week. Mrs. Blanch M. Rolfe from West Bethel visited at Fred Mundt's recently. Bion Browne from Bethel was a recent guest of his brother, True Browne, at the farm.

Mrs. Bertha Mundt represented Pleasant Valley Grange at the State Convention at Lewiston.

Eleanor Lyon was the guest of Elizabeth Mason Sunday, while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lyon were in Auburn for the day.

George Bennett, who has been sealing the past fall and winter is now calling on his Bethel friends.

A. J. Feeley went to West Bethel and Gilead Saturday, where he called on friends and relatives. Thursday night at about six o'clock W. H. Hutchinson and family noticed a large flock of wild geese flying over Grover Hill in a southeasterly direction. They were flying so low that they easily counted them and found there were 31 in number.

Middle Intervale

A letter from Elmira, N. Y., says: "Frank Stephen Packard, one of the 7th generation of Packard soldiers, is yet in France. M. J. Kerwin who enlisted in Quebec, Canada has arrived home either in Boston or Quebec." Mrs. J. P. Coffin in Colorado says that her son, Capt. Frank Packard Coffin who is in the Captains' Training School in Texas will soon be transferred to Camp Lee in Virginia. Capt. Packard is of the 7th generation—all being relatives of Daniel Packard, the Revolutionary soldier. Some years ago Mrs. Coffin left Brooklyn, N. Y., and went to Denver, Colorado to get relief of consumption and she has so far recovered as she thinks to return to her native state, Maine this summer. Her only son has joined the Army, doubtless for life. He was trained to be a soldier when a boy in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The woodmen have hauled the Ed. Smith pulp wood to be shipped away. Cordwood is also being hauled to market.

Songo Road

C. F. Upton and wife and Mabel Cummings have been doing some work on Wheeler for a few days at the farm.

Florence Upton and Mabel Cummings spent Sunday at Seldon Grover's.

G. W. Swicker is hauling hay from Bert Sanborn's to his place here. A. B. Kimball is hauling pine to Pett's Mills for Fred Edwards.

Mabel Cummings of Kennebunk, who has been spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Carl Upton, has returned to her home.

Harry Churchill of Shelburne, N. H., spent Sunday at C. F. Upton's.

C. F. Upton thinks he can tell a good egg story, for he hasn't got but two hens and he gets two eggs a day and sometimes three. How's that?

FRYEBURG

Many mothers who have boys in the fighting 26th Division, so much praised for their bravery are very anxiously waiting for the summons to start for Boston. Every one is preparing to welcome them home. Charles Goodman who will be remembered by many who left here when a young boy enlisted before he was of age in Sudbury, Mass., was badly hurt but he writes he "is all right now" and is expected home with the 26th.

Mrs. G. G. Pife is in Boston after spring and summer millinery.

Mrs. Sara Allard who has been confined to the house all winter is some better and hopes to soon be able to walk out. Mrs. Allard has suffered with rheumatism.

Mrs. B. N. Stone is not so well. She has a day nurse also a night nurse.

Many compliments have been heard regarding the excellent work done by Mrs. Lucy Hutchins and her able corps of assistants Town Meeting day. Several have said "it was one of the slickest meetings ever"—which no doubt was largely due to the dinner—"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

Mrs. John Kerr is still confined to the house.

Mrs. S. F. Ladd is suffering with her eyes.

Mrs. Enoch Chase is ill.

Every one has a young lady who claims to be the most patriotic one of her age in the County if not the State, Charlotte Griffith, granddaughter of Herbert Hodgesden. Everytime little Charlotte sees a flag she salutes it in a most graceful manner and as quick as a flash—Her Daddy is over seas! She is only fifteen months old and is a very bright handsome child.

Mrs. Welch who had a severe shock here last summer passed away at her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., recently. The Welch family have boarded here several years.

J. W. Hubbard of Hiram was in town, Friday.

Elmer Brackett and Howard Woodward were in Portland Thursday.

Warren Robinson

As the boys whose lives were spared are returning to their homes, our hearts go out to those who have "paid the price" and will not return! One young man who went from Massachusetts whose mother was a Fryeburg lady and who from childhood had spent his summers here is, we regret to say, among the "lost" It did not seem possible that this could be true and the winter has had the strongest hopes that Warren Robinson would return.

He was a very bright keen boy and from infancy every one who knew him loved him. He certainly had a brilliant future before him. He had a fine education and possessed of the sterling qualities inherited from both father and mother. The combination was sure to be conducive to enable him to fill a high position in life and to make just such a man as the world needs.

He was the only child of Professor Walter Robinson who is on the board of trustees of Fryeburg Academy and a teacher in the Boston Latin School and Florence Warren Robinson of Arlington, Mass.

"Our boys" on the Nebraska which docked at Boston Monday: Ralph W. Hill, Fryeburg; Howard E. Tyler and Vivian Hutchins, Bethel; Hollis Bean, Lovell.

NORTH HARTFORD

A letter written by Private Charles Cash to his mother, Mrs. Martha Cash.

Brohl, Germany, Dec. 22. Dear Mother: I will write you a few lines this beautiful morning to let you know I am well and hope you are the same.

We have arrived in Brohl, a town on the Rhine, just here, the 17th. Just a month from the time we left this country.

Believe me it was some hike but I pulled through in fine shape. We have seen a lot of Europe and will probably see some more of it before we start across for home.

I saw by the paper that they had extended the Armistice until January 17th. So I suppose that will make it much longer before we can go home. I will tell you some of the places we were in since we left the States the 13th of July.

We landed in Liverpool then to South Hampton, sailed the English Channel to La Havre France, we took a train to St. Almond then we hiked to St. George a little ways on the other side of St. Almond. We staid there about a week then moved to Columbia another town nearby, staid there until the first of September, then took a train to Toul and landed there.

Step 11, that night we rode in trucks to the front to take part in the big Saint Michel drive. We landed in Ansonville that night then next day we hiked to Thury, fixing the roads and bridges and it was some job as the roads were all torn to pieces by the shells and other things and it was also rainy and muddy.

That was what we were doing until the Armistice was signed, fixing the roads for the artillery and supplies to go over. We were moving from one town to another all the time until the Armistice was signed.

I haven't seen any of the fellows from home since I left. I was in hopes to run across some of them over here. This is a fine morning, the sun is shining bright and it isn't very cold.

Well it will soon be Xmas. The Captain is trying to get us up a good dinner for Xmas but guess it will be a hard job. This is a pretty place, along the Rhine the hills are on both sides of the river.

I have some post cards of this town to send you and I am going to get some of Coblenz to send as soon as I can. I am living in a house and have a bed to sleep in, the first since I left home last spring so it seems more like home than it did when we were sleeping in dugouts, tents and all sorts of places. I got a letter from Kate this morning and she said she saw in the paper that the 76th division was going home soon but we do not belong to that division as we left that division when we left for the front last September. We belong to the 4th Corp now in the 3rd Army.

I suppose Jake is still at home. He was lucky that he didn't have to go to war but still I am glad I came and hope I get home all right as I would rather go through what I have than to be called a slacker.

I got a letter from John the other day he said he was expecting to have been called in the draft in Nov. but the Armistice being signed they called off the draft. Well I will have to close for this time hoping to hear from you soon.

A very enjoyable occasion occurred February 27 at the home of Mrs. Will Russell when the members of the embroidery Club met to celebrate the eightieth birthday of Mrs. Fannie Russell. A dainty lunch was served consisting of salad, sandwiches, assorted cakes, pudding, tarts, ice cream, tea and coffee to just thirty at the table. A poem written by Mrs. Denning Hall was read by Mrs. Evelyn Walt. Pretty gifts were also received by Mrs. Russell, who has worked with the Red Cross workers knitting many socks to make our boys comfortable. She was very pleased with her surprise. STOP WEAR AND TEAR

Home laundering methods have made but little progress since the savage method of pounding clothes with stones to clean them. It has been scientifically proven that the methods of home washing cause far greater wear and tear than the scientific methods of modern power laundry.

Professional laundering has made wonderful strides in every branch of work. First, consider the washing: Broadly speaking, the modern laundry washes by filtering hot suds through and through the clothes. We use a pure neutral soap which contains no harmful ingredients and on account of the large quantity of water used, we are able to soften our water by a thoroughly scientific method. It is impossible to do that at home. Soap will not cleanse until the water is soft. That is why the average housewife or wash woman resorts to harsh soap or corrosive washing powders in order to cut the dirt from the clothing. The fact that this hard washing reddens the skin of the hands indicates its ruinous action on your fine clothing. The home method further involves the muscular effort of forcing your clothes by friction against an iron washboard. This is but a step from the old method of beating with stones, and is as crude as our method is scientific.

The whipping of clothes on the line by the wind frays the edges, strains and often tears where the pins hold the garment. This is entirely eliminated by modern Power Laundries like ours. Watch for ad No. 3.

Feel Better

It's great to feel better after many weeks of depression, languor, backache, headache, no appetite, and such miserable nights. In many cases these symptoms result from wrong eating and neglect of the daily action of the bowels. You can readily prove this by trying the genuine "L.F." Atwood's Medicine. Take a teaspoonful in a glass of water an hour before breakfast, and a smaller amount after meals, if you are distressed. Eat slowly of plain food, drink sparingly of mild coffee and tea, more water at bed-time with a little L.F. Atwood's Medicine. You will feel better in a day or two and in a few weeks wonderfully improved. Buy today of your dealer, the true "L.F." made by the L. F. Medicine Co., Portland, Me.

A Brief Statement About Hudson Leadership

Automobile History That Motor Car Buyers Should Remember

Note these facts which prove Hudson Super-Six leadership.
They are convincing reasons for its preference among all fine cars.

An exclusive type motor which so minimizes vibration that automobile endurance has been increased beyond previously known limits.

That was proved on the speedway, in hill climbs and in trans-continental touring. Official records accord the Hudson Super-Six first honor in nearly all worthwhile events.

For three years the Hudson Super-Six has led all fine cars in number of sales.

Its body types forecast the trend of motor car design. Note how cars at this year's auto shows reveal the influence of last year's Hudsons. Look for the new square lines of present Hudson models to be the generally accepted standard of the cars next fall.

Then think of the service your neighbor has had from his Hudson Super-Six. You must know many who own Hudsons. More than 60,000 are in use.

And don't forget that thousands have been disappointed each spring because there were not enough Hudsons to meet the demand. Open car production is off while closed cars to meet present demands are coming through. A few dealers have some open cars. Get one now, if you can, if that is the type you prefer. Otherwise you may have to wait longer than you want to.

EXPERT FIELD NURSE FOR MAINE

At the Augusta House, Augusta, on Friday, March 14th, plans were enthusiastically considered and adopted for an expert field nurse and an expert worker to make a health survey of and to organize the State looking to the conservation of both individual and community health.

The Executive Committee of the Maine

Anti-Tuberculosis Association is facing both needs and opportunities never so great, and facing their plans in the large were outlined for districting the State, when the new State Nurse would spend some weeks in a District, making a preliminary survey for the benefit of the organizer when he starts his campaign. This work will be started as soon as the Association can secure the right parties.

The Secretary was also authorized to cooperate so far as may be with the plans of American Red Cross for health work in Maine.

While necessary funds to finance all these new moves are not in hand and the Association depends on private contributions for its work, the Committee is confident that results of the demonstration will convince all of the value and necessity of the work and funds will not be lacking for its continuance.
